BRYAN'S INJUNCTION.

"I want every democrat who voted for me to vote for Parker. Our platform does not contain one thing that I would strike out of it. I want to tell every silver democrat that, while Parker will not give you all you want, Roosevelt will give nothing you want. I, for my part, shall not take the responsibility of four more years of Theodore Roosevelt."—From Bryan's Louisville Speech.

About Indians In The Far West.

KEAM'S CANYON, OCT. 14.—I have been away from home nearly five years and have been in many States and territories, but in all my travels the I J has followed me. Whether on the frozen forests of the North or the desert plains of the West, it has been my welcome visitor.

For the last year I have been engaged as a teacher among the Moqui Indians of Arizona. The Moquis are a quiet, peaceable tribe of Indians who love their cornfields and Mesquites better than warfare, consequently they have been cowed and driven back by their fierce neighbors, the Navahoes and Apaches. In fact, so hard were they pressed by their hostile neighbors that they have built their houses on the highest peaks of the mesas with only a simple trail leading up to the village.

In time of war, the attacking party was met by a volley of arrows and showers of stones from the Moquis far above them. The Moquis bear a strong resemblance to the Japanese, both in appearance and in language. There is a tradition among the Moqui chiefs that years ago they lived across the sea, but being shipwrecked they were driven by fierce winds to the coast of Mexico and gradually fought their way to their present location. If this be true it might throw some light upon the much mooted question of the origin of the American Indian.

The Indian children are quiet and easily handled, many of them showing remarkable progress in their studies. We have children here not more than nine years old who read well in second reader, compose and write nice little letters to their friends and in many ways are as far advanced as their little white cousins. One of our cutest Indians is Tiny, a fat little girl, with eyes brimming over with mischief and so black that they resemble the intensely black beads.

One night as I sat upon the door step thinking of home, the towering mesa frowned down upon me from above. Beyond the mesa the cedars stood like silent sentinels in the night. Far up the valley the sand hills reflected a silver sheen in the moonlight. As I sat there listening, dreaming, I was interrupted by a hand upon my arm and two shining black eyes looking up into my own. It was Tiny. Long we sat together in silence. I was dreaming of the "Old Kentucky Home far away," and Tiny was thinking of her own humble home away up on the mountain top.

As your space is limited I must bring this letter to a close, but some time in the future I shall give you a description of the home-life of these Indians.

Truly yours,

LUCIEN M. LEWIS.

Mrs. Gilbert, who has been on the stage for upward of 60 years and who has decided to retire at the end of the present season—when she will be 84 years of age—began a farewell New York engagement at the Lyceum Theatre yesterday evening, which will continue for three weeks. She will appear in a play entitled "Granny," which Clyde Fitch has written especially for her.—New York Dispatch.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

One added to one equals one.
But of course, the one must be woe;
Then add a divorce—
That's easy of course—
And one minus one equals one.
—Smart Set.

John Whitledge, a Henderson county farmer, fell into an open cellar and sustained injuries from which he died.

During a windstorm Wm. Lewis, a farmer, living near Madison, Ind., was killed by a barn being blown down on him.

At Harlan Cross Roads, Monroe county, a three-year-old son of James Wood was literally cooked in a kettle of molasses.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamship Cottage City has reached Seattle from Skagway with gold amounting to $120,000.

Wm. N. Clark and William Hook, a Negro, are under arrest at Paris, charged with killing and robbing John Burton, near Millersburg.

The strike of union iron molders in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport was broken, the strike leaders authorizing a number of shops to resume.

The National Fox Hunters' Association field trials will be held at Bardonia, beginning Nov. 14. The derby for dogs under 18 months will be run first.

A four year old boy, kidnaped by gypsies at Phoenixville, Pa., was found murdered near Valley Forge. Six gypsies who were arrested narrowly escaped being lynched.

Two Amalgamated Association men were shot to death in the streets of Youngstown, O., by two strike-breakers, who were threatened with violence after their arrest.

The receipts of the World's Fair for the first four months exceeded disbursements by $188,955. This will be materially increased by the net receipts for September and October.

The saloons of Lexington were open Sunday as usual and the Sunday-closing crusade appears to be at an end. Some of the barbers hold out for the Sunday closing of their shops.

An electric car slid down a steep hill at Newton, Mass., and crashed into another car that was stalled at the bottom of the hill, wrecking both cars and causing painful injuries to eight passengers.

Negro roustabouts at New Orleans are demanding $120 per month for their labor, and in consequence steamboat owners at that port may have to tie up their vessels until the labor troubles are settled.

One detective and one suspected felon were killed and two detectives and two suspected felons were badly wounded in a fight in St. Louis, while the detectives were attempting to place the suspected felons under arrest.

By the verdict of the court martial which investigated the lynching of two Negroes at Statesboro, Ga., Capt. Robert M. Hitch, who was in command of the troops, is to be dismissed from service. Two lieutenants are to be publicly reprimanded, and in addition one of them is to be suspended for a year.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

HUSTONVILLE.

C. T. Bohon sold Joe Jordan two nice harness horses at good prices.

Good corn is selling at $2.25 delivered. J. B. Honaker sold Joe Jordan a good harness gelding for $135.

Be sure to attend the Halloween Festival Oct. 28th at Alcorn's opera house. Come, bring your friends and have your fortune told. Admission 10 cts.

This is an important reminder to all interested parties of the many splendid blue grass farms in the West End of Lincoln county for sale by W. R. Williams.

Much complaint is being made about the coal oil that is being delivered by the Standard Oil Co.'s wagons here and some of our merchants are ordering their oil from another company.

Straub & King, who have the contract for putting metal cornice on the college building, have thus far shown no disposition to do the work and the building on this account is being greatly damaged. The courts may have to decide by whose fault the damage is caused and the amount thereof.

The new impetus given business in our city in every line, with our building boom continuing, we are destined to realize in a few years a city in keeping with our increased business. Our splendid farming and stock-raising country, our extraordinary healthy community and our high class graded school and a class of citizens second to none make us sure of success in every respect.

The new gas plant installed at the Charles Wheeler Emporium was tested Saturday night by the expert and with 32 lights burning, proved to be as it was guaranteed. The plant for the Newtonian Hotel will be put in shape this week, when a test will be made. The 100 light plant for the Weatherford House will then be put in and tested. Architect Boyle expects to have the roof on the building by the last of the week.

C. Rud McCormack's corn show was a grand success and the competition was strong, there being 22 entries of 12 ears each. The weight of some of the entries was 18½ pounds. After close investigation by the judges, Jones Baughman was given first, James Yowell second and Mack Pearyhouse third prize. The show will be given again next year and the premiums greatly increased. Mr. McCormack thanks the judges for their services.

Crab Orchard.

Dr. Henry Pettus has bought the cottage recently built by James Anderson.

The musical will be held in the Baptist church Saturday night next, 29th. A large crowd is expected. So all come and help in a good cause. It will begin promptly at 7 o'clock.

Misses Fannie Redd and Daisy Howe, of Virginia, left Sunday for a visit to Mrs. Kate Potter at Manchester. Miss Howe made many warm friends, who will be glad to welcome her again next Summer.

Mr. Joseph Pleasants has completed a handsome cottage, opposite Crab Orchard Springs, for Sam Reynolds and his work has been highly complimented; also the painting by Crab Orchard's special artist, Joe Magee.

The sick are all improving. A fine democrat made his appearance at Will Pettus'—James Joseph—and Will is feeling about as proud as can be over his son. Sam Holzelaw was baptized Sunday by Rev. Jordan, of the M. E. church.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

Alexander Parker, defaulting cashier of the First National Bank at Tullahoma, Tenn., gave himself up. He is very penitent and says others led him into his troubles. Parker says he lost the bank's money in Chicago bucket shops.

While the Spanish minister of agriculture and commerce was being welcomed in the streets of Barcelona a dynamite bomb was exploded, with the evident intention of killing the minister. No one was injured, however.

Fire in the court-house at Cynthiana caused considerable damage.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER, of New York.

For Vice President.

HENRY G. DAVIS, of West Virginia.

For Judge Fifth Appellate District,
JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL, Of Georgetown.

For Congress

GEORGE G. GILBERT, of Shelby

The most amusing feature of the campaign is the emetic of virtue which has turned the republican stomach side of its load of Husterism inside out. When it is understood that those most responsible for Godfrey's overthrow are renegade democrats who have crowded to the front and driven the old line republicans from the patronage trough it becomes a hilarious farce. Hunter organized this State for victory for his party when his present assailants were not heard of. McKinley knew his real character when he sent him to Guatemala. The republicans of the 11th district were acquainted with his record when they sent him to Congress. The pure and saintly Belknap knew him from the crown of his rascally head to the soles of his crooked feet and yet he entrusted him with the secret management of his campaign. But over night a spasm of virtue seizes the gang of Federal office holders and Hunter is thrown to the wolves. It will be hard to convince the decent people of Kentucky that he is any worse than his party.

ROOSEVELT wants to open the door of hope to every filthy Nigger in the land, but he does not hesitate to close it in the frightened face of every good woman in the South, who is in constant peril from these lecherous brutes, made more so by the social recognition given them by the president. They feel that the hand that can lift Booker Washington to an equality with the chief executive can reach out and protect them from the fury of the mob.

MR. CLEVELAND was the principal speaker at the democratic rally in New York City under the auspices of the Business Men's Parker and Davis Association. When he entered the hall the former president was given an ovation lasting seven minutes. His speech dealt with the fallacy of republican claims, and was a criticism of the party's policy in regard to the tariff, the Philippines and the interoceanic waterway.

CHAIRMAN TAGGART, of the National democratic committee, in an interview in Indianapolis, said the democrats would carry New York, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey and West Virginia. He expressed the utmost confidence in the election of Parker and Davis.

WHAT better ticket could a democrat want than that which will be found under the rooster—Parker, Davis, Cantrell and Gilbert—truly a big four Stamp in the circle under the rooster Tuesday, Nov. 8, and your vote will be recorded for them all.

THE secret of democratic political victory is the thoroughness with which the precincts are organized. Get the vote out in your immediate neighborhood and the balance of the State will take care of itself.

ICKBERG FAIRBANKS is going to honor Louisville with a speech. The weather began to get cooler as soon as the announcement was made.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Beckham has appointed John D. Carroll to hold the Woodford circuit court.

Capt. S. H. Jesse, a veteran political leader, dropped dead at his home near Owensboro.

This year's registration in Greater New York was 688,775, far in excess of that of last year.

Gov. Beckham and Hon. A. G. Caruth opened the democratic campaign at Elizabethtown yesterday.

Five hundred guests and members of the Harlem democratic club visited Judge Parker at Esopus Saturday.

Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the prohibition candidate for President of the United States, will speak in Louisville Nov. 1st.

Chairman Thomas Taggart, of the democratic national committee, is elated over the prospects of carrying the Hoosier State for Parker.

"Money ankle deep in Indiana is the only thing that can carry that State for Roosevelt and the republican ticket," says Senator Blackburn, who has been speaking in the Hoosier State.

The people of Panama are not satisfied with the United States' treaty and as a result of Secretary Taft's visit to the isthmus they hope to obtain a modification of the treaty, granting them important concessions.

E. B. Magoffin has withdrawn from the Senatorial race in the Mercer district.

The Taft-Wright cablegrams concerning Judge Parker's Philippine speech cost the government $570.

An express package, believed to have contained nearly $100,000, sent from national headquarters to the Kentucky Republican State Campaign Committee for use in Kentucky, is said to have been delivered. It is known that an express charge of $118 was paid. Richard P. Ernst, chairman of the Republican committee, was recently in the East.

Dr. J. H. Lackey, populist candidate for Congress in the First Kentucky district, has filed a petition with the Calhoun county clerk to get his name on the official ballot. The matter has been referred to Attorney General Hays. A few days ago the attorney general decided that such petitions should be filed with the secretary of State 30 days before the election.

Here and There.

A negro was lynched by a mob at Berkeley, Va.

The cruiser Colorado on her trial trip made an average of 21.88 knots.

Two men were killed by the explosion of a powder house at Marshallton, Ia.

The acting mayor of New Orleans refused to permit a bull fight to be given in that city.

A great battle is expected south of the Hun river between the Russians and Japanese.

Dr. Von Teiburn Hoffman, of Sumter, S. C., beat his wife and then committed suicide.

The plant of the American Lead Pencil Company, at Lewisburg, Tenn., was destroyed by fire.

Arrangements are being made for a Boer colony of 400 families in the Louisiana and Texas rice belt.

Three persons were killed and two badly hurt in a wreck on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad.

A jury in Bracken county broke the will of Mrs. Permelia A. Orr. An estate worth $30,000 was involved.

James Yokum was shot and mortally wounded at Camp Crisley, in Breathitt county, by George Blanton, nephew of County Attorney William Blanton. The men were drinking together and Yokum accused Blanton of stealing a pint of whisky from him.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Tennessee Methodist Conference at Gallatin adjourned to meet next year in Nashville.

Revs P. J. Ross, of this place, and C. F. Oney, of Lancaster, begun a protracted meeting at Hubble last night. Rev. S. M. Martin, of Shepherdsville, will preach at Fork Church in Garrard at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sunday next.

The Christian church prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. M. C. Williams at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Rev. Allen Ballou closed a meeting of 11 days on Rock Creek and organized a church of 34 members.—Somerset Journal.

A young man who committed suicide at Kokomo, Ind., was identified as a prominent Dowle follower, who was accused of embezzlement.

Rev. R. R. Noel hands us the following: Closed a meeting at Pleasant Point, 12 days, with 17 additions. Baptized in afternoon. Not much water. Three candidates were with us part of the time; got two of them—Singleton and Pratt—on the mourners' bench, but couldn't move McCarty. He held his position, however. Good people down there. Not much politics. I heard a man say he thought there was to be an election of sheriff and superintendent of schools this fall, but that the Presidents were to be elected next year.

THE secret of democratic political victory is the thoroughness with which the precincts are organized. Get the vote out in your immediate neighborhood and the balance of the State will take care of itself.

ICKBERG FAIRBANKS is going to honor Louisville with a speech. The weather began to get cooler as soon as the announcement was made.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

W. L. Walker, a prominent merchant of Columbia, is dead.

Mrs. Polly Sawyer, aged 76, is dead at Mintonville, Casey county.

John H. Barker has been appointed postmaster at Kenesee, Whitley county. Central University again met defeat in the foot ball game with Georgetown College.

The wife of W. J. Blount, a professor in the School for the Deaf at Danville, is dead.

John Burdin, a farm hand, was assaulted on the way home in Casey. His skull was crushed and he was robbed of all his money. He will die.

Dr. S. E. Woody has about completed his report on the analysis of Col. D. G. Colson's vital organs. He declines to divulge the result. Current rumors of poison are generally discredited.

D. K. Rawlings, of London, was appointed special judge of the Clay circuit court to preside at the approaching term in the absence of Judge Faulkner, a member of whose family is ill.

Sheriff Chinn levied on the Harrodsburg electric light plant and the city hall property to collect a judgment for $11,000 awarded the Harrodsburg Water Company recently at the trial of the case in the Anderson circuit court.

John Randolph, of Rockfort, Tenn., was found dead on the L. & N. tracks near the depot at Middlesboro. Randolph had a large sum of money, and it is supposed he was murdered and robbed and his body placed on the track.

R. S. Martin, of Junction City, proprietor of the tobacco manufactory of that city, has been honored with a gold medal awarded by the World's Fair Commission on his exhibit, which has been in the Agricultural building since the opening of the fair.

The body of Col. David G. Colson has been exhumed at Middlesboro and the brain, stomach and liver brought to Louisville for chemical analysis, following repeated rumors of poison having been administered. A message from Pineville says that County Judge Rice gave the order for the investigation.

PUBLIC SALE!

I have decided to quit farming and will on Friday, Oct. 28, sell my farm, containing 188 acres, situated on the waters of Drake's Creek, 1 1/2 miles from Preachersville, on the Fall Lick & Lancaster pike, known as the Jordan Mullins place. The farm is well watered. At least 100 acres of the land is good hemp and tobacco land. It is all in grass and well fenced. At same time I will sell 100 barrels of corn, three milk cows, 1 saddle horse, extra good one, 1 lightning bay haler, good as new, farming implements of all kinds. A lot of household and kitchen furniture. Sale will begin at 10 o'clock A. M. sharp. Terms made known on day of sale. W. B. BENSLEY, Preachersville, Ky.

Valuable Property For Sale.

Ten acres of land, a two-story front 7-room cottage. The house is new. A splendid garden and orchard. There is a large mill on the place; a good crusher and the dam is in good repair and the natural power is great economy in running the mill. Does a splendid business. Everything is in good repair and has all necessary outbuildings. The owner's only reason for selling is the rush of other business, as he has extensive farming interests to look after. This property is on the Hanging Fork about 4 miles from Stanford, and can be bought at a bargain. For further particulars, address S. C. Thurmond, Lytle, Ky., or L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

J. H. BOONE had another good livery horse to die Saturday. Congestion of the lungs was the cause. It was the second horse he has lost by death in a week.

CIRCUIT COURT began at Somerset yesterday. There are nine murder cases on the docket, six of the murders having been committed since the June term, which closed July 15, last.

WE are showing this season an elegant line of furs, bought direct from manufacturers. Come and let us supply your wants and at the same time save you good money. Jno. P. Jones.

HON. D. C. EDWARDS, the gentleman who buried Gum Shoe Hunter so deep in a political grave that he will never be heard of again, was here Saturday en route to Liberty to fix up his fences.

THE entertainment by Miss Ellen Ballou's music pupils will be given on Friday evening next, Oct. 28, at the Graded School Auditorium instead of this evening as our types made us say last issue.

A WIDE-AWAKE Parker and Davis Club was organized at Danville Saturday night. C. C. Bagby was elected president and John Voris secretary. Judge Breckinridge was the principal speaker at the meeting.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY is back from Georgetown, where he has been holding court as special judge. The docket was crowded but by holding court from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night Judge Saufley cleared it up pretty well.

GILBERT—Congressman George G. Gilbert will speak at Hustonville Friday afternoon next, 28th, at 1:30 and at Richards' School house that night. He will speak at Waynesburg Saturday afternoon at 1:30 and at Kingsville that night. Hear him.

TWO weeks from today and the battle will be over. There is no time to waste. Find out what your neighbor is going to do, and if he is out of line, try and show him the error of his way. A little missionary work at this time will save many a political soul from destruction.

At the Eighth District Teachers' Association, which met at Danville last week, Prof. R. S. Eubank, of Hustonville, was elected president; Prof. T. A. Hendricks, of Junction City, vice president, and Miss Mary Stibley, of Anderson, secretary. The next meeting will be held in Stanford.

FRIENDS of Mr. John F. Engleman will be glad to know that he has been promoted to the management of the telephone exchange at Hodgenville. Mr. Engleman left Stanford about six weeks ago to take a position as line-man, and his promotion is a compliment to him and a source of gratification to his friends.

POWELL—Mrs. J. W. Powell died at Rowland last night of paralysis and Bright's disease, aged 38. She is survived by a husband and seven children, the youngest but a month old. Mrs. Powell was a member of the Christian church and was a kind wife and indulgent mother. The burial will take place at Preachersville at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

POLICE COURT—In Judge Tribble's court Saturday, Millard Chadwell and Isaac Simpson, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each. George Doss, drunkenness, $10. Yesterday Will Merritt, disturbing religious worship, was fined $20 and same for drunkenness, $5. Dallas Thurman and Tom Evans each caught fines of $5 for disorderly conduct.

THOSE of us who can not fully appreciate the Beethoven, Chopin and Bach numbers that Mr. Hoffmann will render, will be glad to know that he will play a beautiful arrangement of America's most familiar and beloved airs, not forgetting the one we all love so much—Dixie. Mr. Hoffmann brings with him the best singer in Cincinnati, Mr. Carl M. Gantvoort, and we may expect a musical treat. John Church Co. will place a concert grand piano on the platform. Recital on Wednesday evening, Nov. 9th. Admission 25 and 35 cents; reserved seats 50c. On sale at McRoberts' drug store.

Two pairs of inside window shutters, brand new, for sale cheap. This office.

LOST, in Stanford, pocket book containing $6.99, cartridges, etc. Reward. Leave at this office.

THE rain of Friday afternoon settled the dust but that was about the extent of the good it did. It is still very dry and getting dryer as the days go by.

WR had a pleasant call this morning from Hon. N. D. Miles, republican candidate for Congress, who is speaking in the county. He is an exceedingly affable gentleman and splendid company. A pity it is that so clever a man should have such miserable politics.

YOUNG—Mr. Henderson Young died at his home in Highland at 8:30 yesterday morning after a protracted illness. The burial will occur at the Methodist church at Highland at 2 o'clock tomorrow. Services by the pastor, Rev. Cannon. Mr. Young was 78 years old in February last and most of his long and useful life had been spent in this county. He was a devout member of the Methodist church, a kind-hearted, good man and a splendid citizen. His wife died three years ago but seven children, all grown, survive him.

OFFICIAL CALL.

Democratic Primary Election for the 18th Senatorial District, Saturday, Dec. 3.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the 18th Senatorial district of Kentucky, held at Danville, Ky., on Monday, September 19,

1904, present J. F. Holdam, of Lincoln, W. M. Gooch, of Garrard, R.

G. Evans, of Boyle, and C. F. Montgomery, of Casey. On motion C. F.

Montgomery elected secretary of meeting.

The following resolutions were then adopted by said committee:

Be it resolved by the Democratic

Executive Committee of this, 18th,

Senatorial District of Kentucky:

1. That a primary election be held on Saturday, Dec. 3rd, 1904, in all the voting precincts in the 18th Senatorial Districts of Kentucky, at the regular voting places, between the hours of 6 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock

P. M. for the purpose of selecting a democratic candidate for State Senator from said district in the General Assembly of Kentucky.

2. All democrats, who are residents of said district, and who are legal voters, or who will be legal voters at

November election, 1905, are permitted to vote in their respective precincts, and are invited and requested to do so.

3. Every candidate who desires to have his name printed on the ballots to be used in said primary must deposit with the Chairman of this committee, on or before 12 o'clock—midnight—15 days before the date for
